

Rodolfo Baviera

EBAA Chairman

Rodolfo Baviera was elected Chairman of EBAA in 2004 having served on the Board of Governors since 1998.

Born in Rome in 1947, Rodolfo Baviera was set for a career in the world of European aviation when he gained his degree in Political Sciences at "La Sapienza" University of Rome with the thesis "A politic for the European Aeronautical Industry".

In 1985, he created Geneva-based Bizjet SA - a company specialized in selling pre-owned Falcon executive jets. In the same year he became CEO of Europavia Italia SRL, an international aircraft trading company.

Baviera added Chairman and CEO of Eurofly Services SpA to his responsibilities in 1993, and a year later extended his commitment to Europavia Italia SRL to include the Chairmanship. In 1998 he was appointed Chairman of IBAA (until 2004) and also joined the Board of EBAA and IBAC. Aircraft operator Eliario Italia SpA designated him Chairman in 1999.

Baviera's accomplishments also lie in pedagogy. He has been teaching Aeronautical Law and Business Management at the Department of Legal Sciences at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia since 2000 and Air Transport at the "La Sapienza" University of Rome since 2001.

In 2004 he was elected Chairman of EBAA and was a member of the Board of Aeroporti de Roma SpA between 2005 and 2006. Since 2007, Baviera has acted as Chairman of Bizjet Aircraft & Helicopters Management.

In his capacity as Chairman of EBAA, Baviera is dedicated to protecting Members' interests and, in particular, to ensuring the unique characteristics and vital importance of BusAv to European economies are fully recognized by Officials and Regulators.
